

DENIS BIGNOTTI

ORTHODONTIST

PROFILE

I love orthodontics because it is a field that demands constant attention and continuous study. It requires the effort of never losing sight of the bigger picture and, above all, the patient. Like anything that demands deep dedication and a lifetime to be truly mastered, it ultimately reflects back, teaching us something about ourselves. This journey has also allowed me to meet extraordinary people and colleagues, and I hope it will continue to do so.
